

POSITION VACANT

GENERAL MANAGER – ORANGE CITY BOWLING CLUB

Orange City Bowling Club is seeking a hands-on Club Manager / Venue Manager or General Manager to undertake all aspects of running a licensed Club. The role is aimed at a highly motivated person with good leadership and communication skills, who wants to take the next step as a General Manager of a registered club, or alternatively, a General Manager looking to relocate to the Central West of NSW to enjoy all the lifestyle opportunities that Orange can deliver, or a current local Manager looking to lead a local Club.

This position is a change management role and offers a unique opportunity for a motivated person who can demonstrate strong Gaming and Beverage Management skills, together with a broad knowledge of club operations, including:

- The ability to supervise, lead and motivate a small team.
- Experience in developing and delivering club promotions with the ability to measure and analyse their return on investment.
- Good marketing skills including loyalty program management.
- Sound knowledge of all relevant legislation and guidelines.
- Strong understanding of internal procedures and controls.
- Knows how to deliver real value and excellent customer service to our members.

While desirable to have some financial and marketing skills, it is not a prerequisite. The Club is prepared and has the resources to invest in your career growth and training to help you develop essential management skills.

Orange is four hours west of Sydney and is located in the Central Tablelands of NSW. It is a large regional centre with a population of 42,000, offering excellent amenities and lifestyle opportunities including outstanding private and public schools, and health care. Orange is also graced with award-winning restaurants, boutique shops, glorious gardens and bustling markets and is well known for its cool climate wines and spectacular scenery.

If you would like to use your strategic and creative talents to lead the team that will be responsible for transforming the Orange Club Bowling Club into a destination venue at the heart of the Orange community, please email the Secretary Manager, Orange City Bowling Club with a covering letter and your resume to SM@OCBC2800.COM.AU
